

Dear Friends and Supporters,

Let me take this opportunity to express my appreciation and thanks to all of you for your well wishes and support for the recent “Dr Tan Ching Yam’s Art Exhibition 2008-Chinese Ink on Canvas” event from 26 to 27 Jan 2008.

Due to the overwhelming collective support the exhibition which took place at the Seminar Room, Alexandra Hospital proved to be a success.

We were indeed fortunate to have Miss Pauline Ong as the guest of honour to officiate the opening ceremony of the Art Exhibition who delivered a high hearted and moving speech. Also gracing the event were several VIPs namely, Mr Liak Teng Lit (CEO, Alexandra Hospital), Dr Lim Swee Lian, Dr Ong, Mr William Lim, Miss Yen tan, Miss Teo Weiling, Mr Sherman Kue, Mr Benjamin Ho, Mr Poh Sin Chun, Mr Tay Wenqiang, Dr Loh Y.S, Master Tan Khoon Yong, Mr Ma Shuanglu, Mr Yeo Xide, Miss Tan Seok Bee, ... Colleagues, Teachers, Writers and Artists.

Contributing to the happy event were the generous gifts of beautiful flower baskets and well wishes by family members, relatives, friends, students and many cultural organizations. A good number of paintings were bought by several doctors and art collectors during the exhibition with the proceeds being donated to the endowment fund of Alexandra Hospital.

Special thanks also to be extended to the help and support rendered by a number of the media companies like Radio FM 95.8, Lianhe Zaobao, SHINMIN Daily News, Internet-Suibinanyang wang.

Indeed, the overall success of this art exhibition must be credited to the collective involvement, effort and support of the above mentioned people and organizations. Finally, with your continued support and encouragements, I believe that future art exhibition would also be successful in the way or another. I thank you and wishing all of you good health and many blessings from the heart.

Warm Regards
Dr Tan Ching Yam
